COURSES TAUGHT

2019 – PRESENT

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA, COLUMBIA, SC
TENURE TRACK ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, DESIGN

Portfolio Studio – ARTS 448

Course developer. Capstone course. Student preparation for professional practice and job seeking. Development of online and print portfolios, and other collateral. Contemporary design and illustration discussions, reading, writing, guest speakers, studio visits, and a final public portfolio networking event. Emphasis on assisting each student in preparing for their unique future.

Interaction Design – ARTS 347

Course developer. Investigation and practice of user interface and user experience design for digital products as a contemporary fine art and communication medium.

Process + Systems – ARTS 346

Course developer. Advanced design course in the development of a range of self-directed content and emphasizing creation of cohesive messaging systems that cover a wide range of media. Creation of identity systems that are based on research and appropriate to content, context, and audience. Media may span environmental, motion, print, web, and packaging. Discussion of current design issues and trends. Graphic Design concentration only.

Typographic Design II – ARTS 246

Course re-write. Fundamental concepts in typography with a focus on long form text, hierarchy of emphasis, anatomy, pairings and exploration of grid systems using traditional and modern relevant digital applications.

Typographic Design I – ARTS 245

Course re-write. Fundamental concepts in graphic design with a focus on formal issues, employing the use of fundamental visual communication principles, image development, and using traditional and modern relevant digital applications.

Design Technology + Concepts – ARTS 102

Course developer. Fundamental methods of solving visual problems found in the design arts with an emphasis on clarity and immediacy of the solution for a general audience.

2016 – 2019 UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE, LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY
TENURE TRACK ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, DESIGN

Web Design – ART 576

Course developer. Investigation and practice of website design as a contemporary fine art and communication medium.

Design for Interaction – ART 577

Course developer. Investigation of formal design process within context of designing for human interaction; advanced problems in prototyping physical and digital objects.

Design Methods – ART 205

Foundation course for Graphic Design BFA applicants. Fundamental methods of solving visual communication problems found in the design arts with an emphasis on clarity and immediacy of the solution for a general audience.

Adventures in Design: Methods + Processes – ART 520

Course developer. An in-depth investigation of experimental methods of the design process within the context of designing effective visual communications. This studio-based exploration of graphic design revolves around unconventional projects with emphasis placed on experimentation and observation.

The Book Form (Publication Design) – ART 574

Print-based course exploring the communication and expressive possibilities of bound pages as a medium for words and images.

Typography I – ART 571

Fundamental concepts in typography, including typeface anatomy, crafting body copy, hierarchy, and typeface pairings. Understanding the use of basic formats of the grid.

2015 – 2016 MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY, MURFREESBORO, TENNESSEE
TENURE TRACK ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, DESIGN AND ILLUSTRATION

Senior Project – ART 4320

Capstone senior course. Students develop their BFA Senior Project.

Typography in Motion – ART 4410

Motion-based course exploring animation focusing on Adobe AfterEffects.

Digital Illustration – ART 4280

In-depth study of raster and vector-based software. Conceptualization, technical skills, and professional practices are emphasized. Explores the latest trends in digital illustration, developing strategies for producing ideas, simulating projects produced in the field, and discussing how illustration feeds into the design world.

Typographic Design – ART 2325

Studio course focusing on communication problem solving through the visual medium of language. The fundamentals of typography and typographic design are explored.

Word and Image – ART 3325

Introduction to basic graphic design and visual communications principles, as well as the history of design. Concept development and basic layout skills are taught through assignments that investigate graphic communication in a variety of 2- and 3-dimensional forms. These include print media, packaging, promotional systems and technology.

Beginning Illustration – ART 4290

Introduction to illustration. Studio course devoted to skills development with traditional tools, as well as time and project management. Touches on history and business of illustration.

Advanced Illustration – ART 4300

An advanced illustration studio course devoted to conceptual, editorial, creative thinking, problem solving, and compositional skills. History and business of illustration, trends, and forecasting. Students develop a portfolio of their work throughout the semester, apply to exhibitions and shows.

2011 – 2015 VIRGINIA STATE UNIVERSITY, PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA

TENURE TRACK ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, DESIGN AND ILLUSTRATION

Letterpress – VCAD 499

Course developer. Instruction of setting metal type, the printing process. Touches on history of printing, science behind paper making, technology and photopolymer techniques.

Visual Narrative – VCAD 499

Course developer. Illustration-heavy course exploring the art of sequential narrative, character development and visual storytelling.

Digital Illustration – VCAD 310

Course developer. A digital follow-up to traditional illustration methods learned in Illustration I. Focus is on learning how to manipulate and use digital media in illustration. File organization, raster/vector, and use of tablet tools are center with an overarching theme of synergy between the traditional and digital mediums.

Illustration I – VCAD 300

Course developer. Beginning Illustration studio devoted to skills development with traditional illustration tools, as well as time and project management. Emphasis also placed on conceptual and critical visual thinking skills.

Publication Design – VCAD 315

An advanced design course focused on design for a wide variety of printed and bound publications, to include magazines, artist books, and professional folios.

STUDENT EVALUATIONS OF INSTRUCTION

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

INTRO TO DESIGN TECHNOLOGY + CONCEPTS | ARTS 102

- "Professor Khalili was the most professional and organized professor I had this semester out of all of the classes I was enrolled in. Even with the class being fully online, she did an outstanding job at organizing assignments and due dates, and was super about answering students questions and recording demos for the class for extra help. I learned so much through her class all thanks to her.
- "Great professor who is very passionate about this course and wants to see others succeed. This is a difficult course to take, however her lectures and feedback help you."
- I learned so much! Lots of Adobe knowledge and super qualified professor!"

TYPOGRAPHIC DESIGN II | ARTS 245

- "Awesome to have a professor that knows what's going on and challenges students to think and create in a more in-depth and conscience way."
- "Professor Khalili has been my favorite professor during my time at USC. She speaks with enthusiasm & experience. She prepares for us in the early morning, setting up our homework submission for group discussion. The workload is heavy if you do not time manage well. Overall, the course is one of the best."

PROCESS + SYSTEMS | ARTS 346

- "Professor Meena Khalili is not only an expert in the field of design, but an expert in teaching her students. With every project you get the sense that she wants her students to succeed and be prepared for the professional world after graduation. She brings in visiting designers who are successful in their field to give guest lectures. These lectures provide us with valuable knowledge of the professional world. The way Professor Khalili structured this class allowed me to create a good portion of visual elements that I could put in my portfolio."

- "Meena Khalili is by far the most effective professor I've had while at USC. Her teaching style is beyond organized and effective, this course has made me feel extremely confident in my own work as well as becoming a designer in general."
- "Meena has helped me learn so much in every course I have taken with her. Everything is always clear, organized, and has a purpose. She never wastes our time or money and is always giving us resources."
- "Professor Khalili was so encouraging, an overall amazing professor, I learned so much in this class; it was so organized, and I always knew what was required and expected so that I could be successful. Professor Khalili cares deeply about her students and pushes them to be the best they can be, and it shows!"

EMERGENT DESIGN:CO/ CREATION WITH ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE | SCH01 ARTS 346

- "This class completely transformed by view of the use of technology in design and has changed the trajectory of my education."
- Meena is an engaging speaker and is incredibly organized with her course structure and projects, but is also flexible with adjusting projects as we move through the course. Her class was very immersive and we learned so much about AI.
- Meena Khalili is one of the best professors I have ever had at USC and I'm very grateful that I got to have her as a professor. She is great at prompting discussion and helping it enhance the content. I think that at times we had a lot of work to do to prep for our presentations with readings and other workshops.

- "I am super happy to have taken this course. While this course is challenging, this is exactly the type of course that I want. It was the perfect amount of challenge, learning, and inspiration. Prof. Meena Khalili expects a lot out of students but I believe that the expectations have made students, including myself, create awesome work. I will be proud to put projects made in this [class] in my portfolio."
- "Meena is the best! She grades fairly and takes into account effort and process. This is a fast-paced course that can be very challenging, but she treats every student with respect, encourages us to push ourselves, and provides helpful and honest feedback. The Graphic Design and Illustration program is lucky to have her! This class was possibly the most challenging design course I have taken, and I learned so much from it. The inquiries were so vital to the success of my current portfolio, and I was able to explore so many different themes and ideas. I loved the fast pace, and the high level of work."

- "Always extremely organized and makes class a very professional setting that helps get us prepared for the real world."
- "This is arguably the most helpful class that I have taken at USC. I really appreciate the instruction not only about portfolio and resume building but also things like taxes, contracts, and how to actually be a designer in the "real world." Meena encouraged all of us to put our best foot forward this semester. All of the visitors were thought out and applicable. I also appreciated the time that was carved out for studio work time and one one-on-one meetings. Meena is the perfect instructor for this course!"
- "Meena Khalili is a diligent, kind, and passionate professor. She's very clear about her care for the students and this is shown through attitude in class, availability outside of class, and personal connections made with students. She is by far the best professor I've ever had and hope to continue communication after graduation. She has been a great leader and offered helpful guidance on numerous occasions. She truly goes above and beyond her responsibilities as a professor."
